GENERAL INFORMATION

1 - INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Nottingham Diocesan Ordo for 2019-20. It begins with the First Sunday of Advent 2019 and ends with the Saturday before the First Sunday of Advent 2020. An outline calendar from the First Sunday of Advent 2020 up to the end of the calendar year is also provided.

If you have any comments for the improvement of the Diocesan Ordo, please write to the Editor, Father Simon Gillespie, The Presbytery, Halam Road, Southwell NG25 0AD.

2 - FEASTS OF OBLIGATION (Canon 1246)

In the Dioceses of England and Wales, when the solemnities of the Epiphany, Saints Peter and Paul, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or All Saints fall on a Saturday or Monday, the solemnity is to be observed and the precept discharged on the Sunday. With effect from the First Sunday of Advent 2017 the Epiphany of the Lord was restored to 6 January (except when it falls on a Saturday or Monday, as above) and the Ascension of the Lord to the Thursday after the Sixth Sunday of Easter. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is celebrated on the Sunday following Trinity Sunday. The Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord is always celebrated on 25 December.

Different arrangements apply in churches and chapels pertaining to the Bishopric of the Forces.

3 - MASSES FOR SUNDAYS AND HOLYDAYS ANTICIPATED THE PREVIOUS EVENING

The Mass celebrated on the evening before a Sunday or holyday is that appointed for the day itself, or of the proper Vigil in the case of the Nativity of the Lord, the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, Saints Peter and Paul, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and, above all, Easter. The Easter Vigil should not be celebrated before dusk and should end before dawn.

When the Mass of an anticipated Sunday or holyday falls on a solemnity, the Mass to be celebrated is determined by the higher rank indicated in the table of liturgical days given at the front of The Roman Missal. For the good of the faithful it is always permissible to celebrate the Mass of the Sunday in preference to the solemnity.

5 - CELEBRATING THE CHURCH TITULAR ON SUNDAY

The celebration of the church's titular may be transferred from a weekday to a Sunday provided the following conditions are fulfilled:

The titular has the favour of popular devotion.

The Sunday to which it is transferred is a Sunday 'of the year' (in ordinary time).

The Church has been dedicated or solemnly blessed.

It is a primary titular, or, if a secondary titular, it is a Feast of Our Lord. (All titulars are primary unless specifically stated to be secondary.)

If the above conditions are fulfilled, all Masses at which a congregation is present on that Sunday may be Masses of the titular.

6 - CYCLE OF PRAYER

The liturgical year has been divided into six periods. We are asked to pray for certain intentions throughout the period, as shown in the notes at the beginning of each period. At Mass on the days of special prayer it is sufficient to announce the day during the opening remarks and to include a suitable petition in the intercessions.

7 - AT MASS

Sundays: Gloria (except in Advent or Lent); Readings of the Sunday; Creed; Preface of Sundays; vestments of the colour of the Sunday; one Mass to be offered pro populo.

Solemnities of Obligation: Gloria; Readings of the solemnity; Creed; Preface of the solemnity; vestments of the colour of the solemnity; one Mass to be offered pro populo.

Solemnities: Gloria; Readings of the solemnity; Creed; Preface of the solemnity; vestments of the colour of the solemnity.

Feasts: Gloria; Readings of the feast; no Creed; Preface of the feast; vestments of the colour of the feast.

Memorials and Optional Memorials: no Gloria; readings of the weekday (except where there are proper readings for the memorial being celebrated; or where there are proper readings for the optional memorial and this is being celebrated. For pastoral reasons, other readings may be chosen, such as those suggested in the Lectionary for saints on memorials, or readings which are more appropriate to children for the celebration of a school Mass, provided that the cycle of weekday readings is followed in the main); no Creed; Common Preface or of the memorial; vestments of the colour of the memorial or optional memorial.

Commemorations: no Gloria; readings of the season; no Creed; Preface of the season; vestments of the colour of the season.

The Gloria and the Creed may always be included when Mass is celebrated on special occasions, and at such a Mass the vestments may always be of the colour of the celebration, rather than the day or season, except for Requiem Masses when violet vestments (or black or white) are used.

At Masses during which the Sacrament of Confirmation is conferred the guidance provided by Bishop's House is followed. Likewise at Masses during which the Sacrament of Ordination is conferred, or for other particular Masses celebrated by the Bishop of Nottingham.

8 - NUPTIAL MASSES

Except on Sundays and solemnities the Nuptial Mass (with white vestments) may be celebrated in full. On Sundays and solemnities the Mass of the day is celebrated, with the nuptial blessing and, if opportune, the final proper formula of blessing. Even when Nuptial Mass is not permitted, one of the nuptial readings may be chosen for catechesis, except on the solemnities of the Nativity of the Lord, the Epiphany of the Lord, Easter Day, the Ascension of the Lord, Pentecost, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Saints Peter and Paul, the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, or All Saints, when the readings must be those of the solemnity.

9 - STATEMENT ON MARRIAGE

God the Father has created marriage as a mutual and exclusive covenant between one man and one woman, by which they establish between themselves a loving and intimate partnership of their whole life, which of its own nature is ordered both to the well-being of the spouses themselves and to the procreation and education of children. It is a true vocation entered into for life, for what God has joined together no one can put asunder. Our Lord Jesus Christ has raised marriage between two baptised people to the dignity of a sacrament.

The Church welcomes with joy those who wish to marry in accordance with her teaching. At the same time, the Church is aware of the many pressures of modern life which can endanger their commitment, their relationship and their family life. She is constantly concerned to help those who wish to marry to be prepared as fully as they can be to make this loving and lifelong commitment. For this reason:

1. A couple who wish to marry should speak to their parish priest at least six months before their proposed wedding date, and should not make any other arrangements concerning their wedding until they have spoken to him.

2. The parish priest is responsible for preparing couples for marriage. He will often be assisted in this important work by a deacon, a group of parishioners or members of other organisations.

3. Any marriage involving a Catholic should be celebrated in their parish church. With the permission of their parish priest, the marriage may be celebrated in another parish. A marriage between a Catholic and a non-Catholic may only be celebrated in a non-Catholic church with a dispensation, which will only be granted for a serious reason.

4. If a Catholic wishes to marry a non-Catholic, the Catholic will be reminded of their obligation to preserve their faith, and will be invited to make a sincere promise to do all in their power to have their children baptised and brought up in the Catholic faith. The non-Catholic partner will be informed of this promise, but will not be asked to make any such promise.

All couples preparing for marriage need and are entitled to receive the support of the Church, so that they will be strengthened by the Holy Spirit as they prepare for, celebrate, and live out the commitment which they will make at their wedding. The Church thanks all those married people who show great constancy and faithfulness in their vocation, and prays that their example may inspire all who are preparing to marry.

This statement is appointed to be read at Mass or published in the parish newsletter in February and October each year.

Bishop of Nottingham

12 - PARISH FINANCIAL REVIEW

The weekend of 29 February and 1 March 2020 has been proposed as an opportunity for every parish in the diocese to thank parishioners for what they give financially, and to encourage them to consider whether they might be able to increase their giving. This is an opportunity to encourage more people who are tax-payers to enhance their giving through Gift Aid. For further information published by the Finance Office, see the Ad Clerum or contact Bishop's House directly.
