FOREWORD

Welcome to the Nottingham Roman Catholic Diocesan Education Service (NRCDES) Continuing Professional Development and Formation Handbook for 2019/20.

In addition to a range of events which will continue to be held centrally at the Diocesan Centre, I am delighted to inform you that this year, a greater number of courses will take place on a regional basis within each of our Catholic Multi-Academy Trust areas. I do hope that this will encourage even more schools to participate in these training opportunities.

You will notice that this year our Continuing Professional Development and Formation Handbook does not include a section for local governors. This is because we shall be working in collaboration with our Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts and a number of other organisations to provide specific training on a range of areas at a regional level. Further details of this programme will be available separately.

This year, we are using a new online booking system 'BookWhen' for all NRCDES events. Please visit www.bookwhen.com/nrcdes and follow the screen instructions to reserve you place at any of our events.

Ben Davis will present most drb Briefings. He is a skilled presenter, currently a serving Primary Headteacher in his second Headship. He moved to his current school after its second Special Measures judgement and led it to good in under two years. He will be moving to a part-time executive role in his multi-academy trust which will give him the time needed to prepare and deliver Briefings.

Andrew Pilmore will present some drb Briefings. He is a skilled presenter, and has been the Headteacher of two primary schools. His first school was judged to be outstanding. He then moved to a school in a very challenging area, and has used his leadership skills and experience to sustain its good judgement. RE SUBJECT LEADERS

LENT TERM – RELIGIOUS EDUCATION SUBJECT LEADERS' RETREAT DAY

PRIMARY

Facilitated by Sr Sheila McNamara (RSCJ)

Content

This day will be led by Sister Sheila McNamara (RSCJ) who has been involved nationally, for several years in offering Spiritual Direction to a number of people, individual and group supervision, leading quiet/reflection days, accompanying people on individually guided retreats and teaching on the Spiritual Direction course, training others in accompaniment.

An important part of her work is working with teachers and other school staff, in nurturing the 'spirituality of the educator' – offering space for reflection, retreat, prayer and quiet to busy teachers.

The day aims to provide the opportunity for Religious Education subject leaders to receive both spiritual and professional nourishment.

Dan Callow and Emily Clark are from the Birmingham Diocese but their work leading schools in Full Schools Retreats, Sacrament Retreats and Staff Retreats often takes them into the Nottingham Diocese and the Shrewsbury Diocese.

OneLife Music are a busy ministry sharing their faith through music with many children and staff alike and these inset days have been developed to share those experience through a light and enriching nature that will send you home, full of music that will deepen your own journeys of faith as well as armed with new material and ideas to enrich those in our schools.

Their last training day for Nottingham was in March 2018 and we look forward to welcoming them back.
